The Germs pounded Kenyon and for seventeen lusty wallops, Joe Hyde leading with three doubles, Bateman two doubles and a single. "Lefty" Stiely was in his best form and Bridesburg again defeated Chester. 2 to 3, before the largest crowd of the season at Blehmond and Orthodox atreets. Stiely allowed Bris Lord's gang five hits, while the afferings of Bill Pierson were socked for hirricen. Bushev starred at bat with a single, double and triple, while Bobby Rice had a single and double. The fielding of Bushey and Zibell was sensational.

Once again did Shanahan turn back the Ardmore Moin Liners, but this time the score was very close, the West Philadelphians whinling at Forty-eighth and Brown streets by 3 to 4. Vincent Mollyneaux was on the hill for the visitors, and while no was not hit as hard as Curry, the Shanahan swate were more timely. Ardmore threatened in the ninth when Jackal led off with a single, but Mattie hit into a fast double play, Peterson to Rowe.

Detrich, of Kensington, and Volz. of Not-aseme, staged a pitchers' battle at I and Venanco streets, and Kensington won, 3 to 0. Detrich allowed but two hits and fanned eleven, while Volz yielded seven hits and

An error by Harry O'Donnell allowed the New-Yorkers to take the lead in the sixth, but Phil Haggerty's athietes staged a raily and tied the count when Nield and Dorsey scored on Dean's wallop.

Post Has Prospered

The Greenwood Post was organized on September 25, 1919, with sixteen ex-service men, and quarters were established at Strecker's Hall, 2981 Frankford avenue, until a new home at 2771 Frankford avenue was purchased. The building has been completely renovated, and the Greenwood headquarters are second to none in the northeast. The membership has grown until now, it has nearly 250 in good standing.

Harry Lyons Greenwood, for whom it was named, was for years one of Philadelphia's leading athletes and a character known by fans of all sport ball players ever turned out at Central High and for years was a tower on the famous Holmesburg club and chief rooter for a dozen years of the Jasper basketball team.

He went into action in the World War on September 26, 1918, and in a citation sent to headquarters gallantry and bravery above and be-yond the call of duty in the Meuse-Argonne offensive at the town of Malancourt he was awarded the Distind Service Medal by General John J.
